VEMMA CONSULT ATTORNEYS

The World Trademark Review 1000 ranking for the year 2021 is out. We are happy to report that, for the first time in the history of Intellectual Property Practice, Tanzania has been ranked and recognized in the 2021 edition of the World Trademark Review 1000 – The World's Leading Trademark Professionals, a resource that highlights top legal talent in the trademark industry around the globe. The achievement is a result of our exerted efforts which led Tanzania to be ranked and recognized by the world peers for the first time.

We are proud to report that, Vemma Consult Attorneys has been listed as one of the leading law firms in Tanzania for Intellectual Property practice with the highest number of ranked professionals in the World Trademark Review 1000 for 2021 global rankings for Tanzania jurisdiction.

Furthermore, our two talented Partners both co-heading the IP Department, Patrick Sanga and Haika-Belinda John Macha are listed in the World Trademark Review 1000 as top trademarks professionals in Tanzania. The World Trademark Review 1000 states and we quote:

“Having ramped up its IP capabilities in recent years, corporate outfit Vemma Consult Attorneys now handles a significant volume of trademark filings, oppositions and litigation. Its enviable success rate is thanks to tried-and-tested quality control mechanisms and the hawkish supervision of partners Haika-Belinda Macha and Patrick Sanga, who provide stellar leadership to a keen, proactive team. Collectively they act for a slew of prestigious international brands, including Davidoff, Chanel and Coca-Cola, for which they have recently handled renewal projects; and Philips, for which they have registered trademarks in Tanzania and Zanzibar”

We could not have achieved this great milestone without the constant support from our Clients and Colleagues. We therefore extend our gratitude to our Clients, Peers and industry leaders who participated in the research. Special thanks to the World Trademark Review for acknowledging our work in Intellectual Property practice in Tanzania.
